

GAVAN REYNOLDS

Director | Auctioneer

In a career spanning two decades, Gavan's dedication to property and passion for the craft of Auctioneering has seen him rise to be not only the most prolific auctioneer in the hunter, but also the region's most sought after.

Week in, week out, Gavan is given the great honour of representing some of the industry's leading agencies, real estate professionals and in turn their clients for a quality and consistency of result that surpasses expectations.

As the founder and leader of the Reynolds Auctions business, Gavan's commitment to excellence in both performance and service means that come what may on auction day the best possible outcome will be achieved.

With a style and confidence that encourages an inclusive and supportive auction day environment, Gavan prides himself on getting the challenging deals done and providing a level of service rivalled by very few across the national real estate landscape.

Gavan's sense of community and the importance of giving back has seen him provide his Auctioneering talent to countless charity's including Hunter Medical Research Institute, Royal Institute for Deaf and Blind Children (RIDBC), Starlight Foundation just to name a few. In partnership with the charity's the collective efforts for fundraising have resulted in over $1,000,000 amassed for these wonderful organisations.

A reputation build on going the extra mile, Gavan's knowledge, experience and energy means that no stone will go unturned to maximise the result for his valued clients.
