

LUKE JONES

Auctioneer

The true gentleman of the auctioneering world, Luke Jones is the latest Auctioneer to join the Reynolds Auctions team. Having commenced his property career in the Newcastle landscape almost 20 years ago Luke has now turned this passion towards the craft of Auctioneering. Luke delivers a well-run Auction campaign and with a strength in communication he is focussed on delivering you exceptional results.

Throughout his school years and into the early part of his career Luke was an elite sportsman in the Newcastle Rugby Union, it is this training that has seen him bring a dedication, discipline and an understanding for the value of team work to his professional life.

Luke's compassionate, caring yet confident nature is evident to all who come into contact with him and the combination of these enviable qualities is what makes him the complete package.

A clear dedication to service, an endless source of support for his clients and an ability to deliver makes Luke the choice for those looking for industry best representation or those looking to take their Auction results to the next level. Luke is a valued member of our team as he will be yours.
